

Stanwood-Camano School District

February 15, 2011

DONATIONS

1. Livestock Master Foundation donated $900.00 to Stanwood High School to purchase gym floor covering.

RECOGNITIONS

1. Port Susan Middle School's food service department received an Excellence Award from the Snohomish Health District in the category of School/Industry/Institution for 2010. This award is given to establishments who excel in food safety practices and is based on the restaurant and food service inspection program.
2. Stanwood High School students recognized:
 - a. Samantha Tichota will compete at the state Poetry Out Loud competition March 5th at the Broadway Center for Performing Arts in Tacoma after receiving 1st place at the regional competition.
 - b. The Chess Team won the League Championship and will compete at the State Tournament in Blaine. Team participants are: Jon Munck, Micah Losee, Jeff Tasky, Caleb Schwarze, Dean Bretland, Austin Michl, and Aaron Kroeze.
 - c. Savannah Phillips was accepted to participate in Phase One of the Washington Aerospace Scholars Program. She will complete ten lessons of a distance learning program with a NASA-designed curriculum covering the history of space exploration, the space shuttle, the International space Station, the moon, and Mars.
3. Shining Stars: Twin City Elementary and Stanwood Middle School
4. Teacher of the Month for January: Julie Spores and Diane Wood, Utsalady Elementary
5. Classified Employee of the Month for January: Diane Anderson, Port Susan Middle School para educator