

Stanwood-Camano School District
BOARD OF DIRECTORS

January 15, 2013

DONATIONS

1. Cedarhome Elementary PTA donated transportation costs ($203.22) for the Cedarhome Elementary 5th grade field trip to Stilly Fish Hatchery.
2. Wells Fargo Foundation Educational Matching Gift Program, on behalf of employee Laurell Johnson, donated $100.00 to Stanwood High School's Celebration of Excellence.
3. Susan Cole, S & H Viking Village, donated $2,000.00 to the Stanwood High School choir club.
4. Puget Sound Purebred Sheep Breeders Association donated $200.00 to Stanwood High School Career and Technical Education horticulture program.
5. The Washington State Traffic Safety Commission awarded Cedarhome Elementary a grant for $500.00. The grant has been used for crossing guard equipment ($419.69): signs, ponchos, gloves, stop signs and parkas.
6. Joe Bolewicz, Stanwood-Camano Physical Therapy, donated $361.55 to Stanwood-Camano School District's food services department for the healthy snack program.
7. Cedarhome Baptist Church Son-shine Fund donated $100.00 to Stanwood High School Career and Technical Education Work Based Learning Program.

RECOGNITIONS

1. Heath Hornecker, from the National Association of Agricultural Educators (Region I) recognized Margaret Olson, Stanwood High School Career and Technical Education teacher, for her valuable attendance and participation at the national conference. The focus of the conference was to provide advocacy for agricultural education and professional development opportunities, allowing agriculture teachers to stay current with agriculture and teaching methods. Mr. Hornecker said, "Margaret's involvement has helped us to move forward to reaching our goals."
2. Christine Gruver, Stanwood High School Principal, announced that the Northwest Accreditation Commission, an accreditation division of AdvancED, proudly accredits Stanwood High School through June 30, 2016. AdvancED offers a wide range of services to help education providers improve student learning.
3. Employee Awards:
 - a. Shining Stars: Saratoga School, Stanwood Elementary, and Stanwood Middle School
 - b. Classified Employee of the Month (December) – Jeff Epright, on behalf of all the bus drivers
 - c. Teacher of the Month (December) – Craig Kelley, Twin City Elementary
 - d. Board Appreciation